

COUNTY NEWS

SHACKELFORD

Miss Margaret Flynn left Sunday for Kansas City where she will visit relatives and take in the Carnival.

Mrs. Wm. Patterson, Mrs. Wm. Bridges and Miss Florence Hensley of Marshall were guests of M. S. Mark Cooper Monday.

Jas. Doolan went to Marshall Monday. Austin Jones is in charge of the store during his absence.

Jerome Prior, wife and children of Marshall visited the Misses King Sunday.

Mrs. Frank E. Rigney has returned from a visit to Springfield, Mo.

Miss Helen Thompson accompanied Miss Margie Haas to Slater Friday. They took in Slater fair Saturday and returned home Monday.

Mrs. Dr. Phelan of Marshall returned home Saturday after a visit to her mother Mrs. Margaret Kennedy.

Joseph Doolan and wife visited Slater Friday and Saturday and took in the fair.

Mrs. C. G. Vaughan of Miami is the guest of her niece Mrs. W. R. Combs.

Mrs. Frank Kennedy and children returned to Kansas City Tuesday after a two weeks visit to Mrs. Margaret Kennedy and Mrs. Frank Mitchell.

Miss Harriet Thompson who is teaching the Buck School south of Marshall came home Friday afternoon to spend Saturday and Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thompson.

Mrs. Chas. Hume, Mrs. Duncan Mrs. Frank Mitchell, B. A. Jones and R. C. Winslow were Marshall visitors Saturday.

Mark Cooper and wife left Wednesday noon for Springfield, Ill. to take in fair. They will also visit Murrayville and Jacksonville, before their return.

Dr. W. B. Wingfield was a Marshall visitor Tuesday.

D. F. Finley and wife of Strasburg, W. Va., are expected Tuesday evening for a visit to Mrs. Alice Cooper.

MT. LEONARD.

Jesse Poindexter and wife of Marshall moved to the old Taylor farm Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Ford of Gilli moved up last of the week to make preparations to move. Mrs. Ford returning Friday.

Mrs. Dollie Baker and daughter, Miss Viola, Miss Estelle Grimes and Miss Evard were Marshall visitors Saturday.

Fred Smitherman and family left Saturday morning for Mexico their future home.

Dr. James and wife of Elmwood were visitors to our town Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Spencer returned from Kansas City Thursday where she has been to visit her daughter-in-law who has been very sick for some time.

Arthur Oquest and family and Ralph Irvine and family of Marshall were Sunday guests of C. J. Oquest and family.

Word was received here Monday by Mrs. M. Gentry that her brother's wife, Mrs. Earl Smitherman had died at her home in Kansas City. Mrs. Gentry and children started for that place Tuesday evening.

Rev. Clark returned to his home in Slater after conducting a two weeks meeting at the Baptist church. The meeting is still going on conducted by Rev. McClanahan of this place. Good attendance and eleven conversions.

J. A. Pollard and daughter, Mrs. Will Hanley and children attended the fair at Slater last week.

Mrs. James Swinney was a Marshall visitor Monday.

Miss Emma Kleen left Sunday for St. Louis where she will visit a few weeks with her brother.

Miss Pearl Lemons is spending this week with friends in Grand Pass.

Mrs. C. L. Hughes was very sick for several days this week, but is much improved at present.

Mrs. Lulu Browning and little daughter of Marshall were guests of Mrs. Sarah Simmons at few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cort left Sunday for Miami to visit with the former's sister, Mrs. Jake Weaver. Geo. Oquest, Jim Briggs and Tom Pollard attended the State Fair at Sedalia the first of the week.

Mrs. Liza Elgin and children left for their home in Nelson Monday after a week's visit with relatives here.

Have you seen our agent? Better see one of them and get one doz. of our $5.00 photos for $3.00.

10-22 McChesney Studio.

When your are ready to buy an overcoat or suit, you want to see our Hart Schaffner & Marx models

Copyright 1909 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

YOU'LL see here the smartest, most distinguished lot of overcoats and suits ever displayed in this town; the very highest type of fine clothing made today.

There's a good deal more to an overcoat than simply a certain amount of cloth put together. You want all-wool fabrics first of all; and there's just one way to be sure of getting them; that is, to find the Hart Schaffner & Marx label in the coat.

Then there's a good deal to say about style; the collar and lapels, the length and swing of the skirts, the drape of the coat in every way.

We offer you the best style here; the greatest variety of fabrics and models to choose from; and an assurance of the highest quality. We guarantee a correct fit.

Overcoats $15.00 to $30.00 Suits $18.00 to $30.00

This store is the home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

Murphy-Mills Clo. Co.

GRAND PASS.

Mrs. Jennie Riley and sons, of Mayview, visited relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thompson, from Odessa, spent this week with their uncle, L. Reynolds, and family.

S. Nelson's sale last Saturday was largely attended.

The ladies of our town are noted for doing all in their power for the welfare and prosperity of their homes and town. They have been successful in collecting nearly one hundred dollars from the citizens towards making a concrete sidewalk on west side of Main street. Also the ladies of the three churches will plan an excellent supper in the near future to raise money to build a walk to the churches.

Mrs. Eula Ford and children, of Pittsburg, Kansas, are visiting her sister, Mrs. B. Smith and family.

Miss Laura Webb and also Mr. A. Webb are visiting relatives at Warrensburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson announce the arrival of son this week.

A large number from here are attending the carnival at Kansas City.

Miss Callie McClurke is attending the Sedalia Fair.

Miss Quisenberry visited her relatives at Slater Saturday.

W. Rohn, M. Edwards, E. Fenner, D. Moreland went to the Sedalia Fair Tuesday in Mr. Rohn's auto.

NEW HOME

The meeting closed Sunday night at New Home which has been going on for the past two weeks with no conversions.

L. A. Larue left Friday night with his car for Melrose, New Mexico. The rest of the family will leave Wednesday morning. They will make that their future home.

Several from here are attending the state fair at Sedalia.

Mrs. J. A. Larue and children, Misses Mollie Durnil and Frances Reager and Peter Durnil, J. J. Murray and Rufus Edwards were dinner guests of D. M. Harris and family Sunday.

Miss Mamie Bentley visited her aunt Mrs. J. H. Fordham Saturday night and Sunday.

D. M. Harris' hand is slowly improving.

Mrs. Brown of Sweet Springs spent from Friday until Monday with Mrs. John Knott.

Miss Allie Treadway went to Kansas City Friday afternoon for a short visit with her father and sisters. She returned Sunday.

A. P. Harris is on the sick list this week.

KOPING

The weather is fine and everybody is busy.

Sam Dix is still making sorghum. Charley Fuller of Kansas City was calling on Dave Kelley Tuesday.

Wesley Kelley is on the sick list at this writing.

Robt. Jobe of Elk Lick made a flying trip to Marshall one day last week.

Miss Lizzie Roberts was calling on friends Saturday.

Luther Scott and family were guests of Bud Griffith and wife Sunday.

Robert Jobe and Dan Wilhite went to Sedalia last Monday to attend the state fair.

Bud Griffith and Luther Scott were at S. W. Brockman's Sunday evening.

Mrs. Jack Jobe and daughter, Mrs. Charley Renison were shopping in Koping one day last week.

FOR SALE—A fine lot of sorghum by W. C. Hoffman, 31-2 miles southeast of Marshall.

GILLIAM

Allen Liggett left Sunday for Wichita Kansas where he will work the coming season.

Miss Helen Willis is reported to be quite sick this week.

C. H. Liembrock went to Alma Saturday to spend Sunday with his home folks.

F. T. Smith and wife of California are the guests of M. D. Powell for a few days.

Mr. Goetz of Illinois was visiting here several days last week.

J. B. Smith one of our progressive farmers was transacting business in Slater Tuesday.

Cap Balts and wife were guests of relatives here Sunday.

Warren Huff called on home-folks here Sunday.

Miss Eulalia Heintzler is taking in the sights in Kansas City for a few weeks.

G. B. Porter and wife left one day this week for Kansas City where Mrs. Porter will have her eyes treated.

Some of our people were very much interested in the balloon race Tuesday which was seen from this place.

Mr. John Kaul of Holton Kansas is visiting relatives here, F. J. Genser and family.

Several of our entergetic business men left Tuesday for a few days outing on the Cutt Off near Brunswick.

TEDIEVILLE

Thad Haggard, of near Tedieville is not making much success at his business of making low cut shoes on account of the few customers. Please tell Uncle Sam to give him a patent, which will insure him success.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—Good livery barn at Mt. Leonard, M. G. Kisen.

OAK RIDGE

Intended for last week. A. J. Hays had the misfortune of losing one of his work mules one day last week.

One of W. R. Burnett's fox hound went mad and he shot it one day last week.

Miss Ada Dee was the guest of Miss Lual Burnett Sunday.

Miss Mary Ohlendorf and Frank Hays were the guests of Caroline Thornton Sunday.

BLUE LICK

Mrs. Baker is able to be up again after being sick for some time.

Those from Blue Lick that attended the association were Tom Wyatt and daughter, Miss Grace Lasley, Miss Scottie York and Mrs. Jim Dennis.

Rev. Garret will preach at Blue Lick next Sunday and at night also. J. M. Dennis and wife attended the fair at Sedalia.

LITTLE ROCK

Dr. W. L. Sharp returned home Saturday morning from Montgomery City where he had been visiting relatives and attending the county fair.

Dan Ehler returned home from Gasconade county where he has been for several days.

Miss Mary Ohlendorf accompanied by George Nolke passed through our city Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Sharp and Chas. Reynolds were Blackwater callers Tuesday.

George Pearson left for Sedalia fair Wednesday.

Henry Mattox and family, W. H. Thornton and family, George Pearson and family and T. M. Ehler and family attended the fair at Slater.

Dan Ehler was a Malta Bend caller Tuesday.

Herbert Ferny and Dr. Sharp attended the Slater Fair Saturday.

Miss Ruby Pearson won the red ribbon, being second best lady driver Saturday afternoon at Slater. We all thought she ought to have received the blue ribbon.

BROWNLEE

Mrs. C. Barrett, and Mrs. S. Barnett and children of near Marshall have been visiting Monroe Wilkerson and family the past few days.

Quite a number from here took the early train at Nelson Sunday morning for Sedalia to attend the fair.

Miss Nannie Townsend attended the Slater Fair Saturday returning Sunday.

Monroe Wilkerson and daughter, Miss Sarah returned home from Mexico Thursday where they had been to visit his father also to attend the reunion of the War Comrades.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown were visitors of Tom Townsend and family Sunday.

Glen Townsend is in Sedalia this week attending the State Fair.

Mrs. G. P. Martin of Arrow Rock was a visitor of S. Townsend and family yesterday.

The ice cream supper at Brownlee was well attended. $31 was the amount realized. All report a good time.

Farmers are nearly through sowing wheat and rain is badly needed.

Mrs. Vic Townsend and son were visiting Mrs. Grace Higginbotham in Nelson Sunday.

Misses Johnnie and Edna Townsend were out with their grandma Finley Sunday.

NAPTON

Mrs. Esther Morris and daughter Miss Julia went to Slater Wednesday afternoon.

Manuel Alexander was a passenger to Marshall Saturday.

J. F. Dysart and lady attended the Slater fair Saturday.

Jas. Hollywood and A. Arnold went to Slater Thursday to attend the fair. Mr. Arnold had his saddle horse entered in the show ring.

Austin Dennis and wife and son took the train Friday morning for Sedalia where they will visit relatives and attend the state fair.

It Will Pay You to Call on

J. T. ISBELL,

who is still doing business at the old stand and looks after all his business. He does the best Horseshoeing and Blacksmithing done in the city. Bring me your business.

J. T. ISBELL,

S. W. Cor. Jefferson Avenue and Morgan Street, MARSHALL, MISSOURI.

tives and attend the state fair. D. H. Emison and wife went to Sedalia Saturday to attend the fair. Mr. Emison has some hogs on exhibition there.

C. H. Bradford came down from Marshall Monday an spent the day with his son.

W. E. Lefave and wife went to Sedalia Monday to attend the fair. Louis Mills spent Sunday and Monday with friends in Nelson.

Jacob Clawson was a passenger to Sedalia Sunday.

Miss Pearl Caswell is assisting E. J. Edwards in the store this week. June Baker and W. E. Shackelford went to Sedalia Tuesday to attend the fair.

Harvey McMahan was shipping cattle to St. Louis Monday.

The following people spent Sunday with W. A. Davis and family, J. E. Davis and wife, A. L. Goodloe, and wife, E. F. Foreman and wife, Henry Niemeier and family and Wm. Easham and wife.

ROSE VALLEY

Mrs. Tom Ray and Mrs. Belle Ray of Sweet Springs were guests of Mrs. B. R. Johnson Thursday.

Wm. Rothrock and Mrs. John D. Rothrock, Sarah Weddle and Mrs. Hiram Rothrock spent Friday with Mrs. Paul Welborn of near Sedalia.

Mrs. Uriah Mayse and daughter, Ida, were guests of Mrs. Samuel Rothrock Friday.

Rev. Shackelford preached at Rose Valley Sunday.

H. C. Hall is visiting his sons, F. T. and B. F. Hall, at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Robbins left Sunday morning for Sedalia, to attend the State Fair and visit with friends.

Miss Maggie Parsons was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jackson several days last week.

Rich Beason came in Saturday from Eldorado Springs to visit his daughter, Mrs. Elwood Yokely and also attend the State Fair.

Luther Treece and wife were visitors at S. M. Leonard's Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Will H. Smith was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Harper Smith, near Houstonia Thursday.

B. F. Hall and wife spent Saturday night and Sunday with Taylor Hill and family in Mt. Zion neighborhood.

Everett Chambers and wife were guests of the former's parents, Jas. Chambers and family Sunday.

John Hammock and family, near Dunksburg, were guests of G. E. McGuire and family Sunday.

T. A. McAllister and wife left last Tuesday for Kansas where they will spend several days with their son, Arthur, and wife.

J. D. Rothrock and family were the guests of John Whirley and family near Sweet Springs Sunday evening.

Miss Myrtle Leonard left Tuesday for Kansas City to visit relatives and while there attend the carnival.

Pearl Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Blackburn will observe their thirtieth wedding anniversary at their beautiful home "Maplewood" at Blosser today by entertaining their friends from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Change of Proprietors.

Q. N. Merrill this week took over the business of the Marshall Auto and Machine Co. and has already taken charge. He will be assisted by H. L. Nichols, the well-known machinist, and Artie Hightshoe in the auto department. Mr. Hightshoe will also continue his auto livery business. The firm has a finely equipped machine shop and is indeed fortunate for our city to have such a shop and also the fact that able mechanics can be had.

Births.

COOK—A 10-pound boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cook at Cretcher and they named him Frederick A. at once in honor of the Cook of North Pole fame.